

CALL FOR PAPERS AND REFEREES

SAC 2002

The 17th ACM Symposium on Applied Computing

March 10 - 14, 2002, Madrid, Spain

Special Track on ...

SAC'02:

For the past sixteen years the ACM Symposium on Applied Computing (SAC) has been a primary forum for applied computer scientists, computer engineers and application developers to gather, interact, and present their work. SAC is sponsored by the ACM Special Interest Group on Applied Computing (SIGAPP); its proceedings are published by ACM in both printed form and CD-ROM; they are also available on the web through ACM's Digital Library. More information about SIGAPP and past SACs can be found at <http://www.acm.org/sigapp/>.

Special Track on <<Insert Track Title here>>

Major topics of interest include but are not limited to the following:

<<List of Topics>>

Track Program Chair(s) (and Co-Chairs if any)

<<Names, Affiliations, Addresses, Emails, other related info (tel, fax, etc)>>

Guidelines for Submission:

Original papers from the above-mentioned or other related areas will be considered. This includes three categories of submissions: 1) original and unpublished research; 2) reports of innovative computing applications in the arts, sciences, engineering, business, government, education and industry; and 3) reports of successful technology transfer to new problem domains. Each submitted paper will be fully refereed and undergo a blind review process by at least three referees. Accepted papers in all categories will be published in the ACM SAC'02 proceedings.

<<If your track plans to have any other related follow-up activity, e.g. a journal special issue, you can add further information here>>

Submission guidelines must be strictly followed:

Submit six (6) copies of original manuscripts to <address for submission of papers>. Alternatively, submit your paper electronically to <address for electronic submission> in uuencoded compressed postscript format; this is strongly encouraged. Fax submissions will not be accepted. The author(s) name(s) and address(es) must not appear in the body of the paper, and self-reference should be in the third person. This is to facilitate blind review.

The body of the paper should not exceed 5,000 words (approximately 15 pages, double-spaced). A separate cover sheet (in the case of electronic submission this should be sent separately from the main paper) should show the title of the paper, the author(s) name(s) and affiliation(s), and the address (including e-mail, telephone, and FAX) to which correspondence should be sent.

All submissions must be received by September 1st, 2001.

Anyone wishing to review papers for this special track should contact the Track Program Chair(s) at the address shown above.
